Present - (23) - Sean O'Reilly, Philip Cole, Juanita Greenhill, Barney Greenhill, Richard Newman, Abi Cripps, Aileen Dain, Cherry Bradley, Martin Gerrard, Susanne Stewart, Pauline Fryer, Jennifer Fox, Chris Barnwell, Rod Birtles, Alison Theaker, Di McPetrie, Clare Pawley, Maggie Sutton, Sarah Howden, Paul Rundle, Greg Watts, Carol Cooper and Loïc Doison.

Apologies - (8) - received from John & Delia Elliott, Grenville & Angela Taylor, Wendy Bolt, Chris Edwards, Liz Playle and Flo Stathers.

Chairman's Report - Philip welcomed all those present. Kino is pleasingly resilient after eighteen months away. It is very good to see so many familiar faces again and, members' thoughts and views are very welcome.

Treasurer's Report and Accounts - Barney thanked everyone for their support. He asked how many had read the Treasurer's Report and two people had! A great showing of trust. He said it had been an interesting year. In September, when we reconvened, there was an immediate response. People were so glad to get back together and enjoy companionship, and a good film too. The membership fee for 2021 was waived because of Covid.

There was a vote to propose the Treasurer's report. The proposer was Clare Pawley and seconded by Cherry Bradley. The show of hands in favour was unanimous.

Election of Officers - The Committee is glad to continue and the members are happy to have us again. Election voted on by Members - unanimous approval.

Any Other Business - Clare Pawley kindly thanked the Committee for their work. Philip said that if any members had suggestions for future films they should let us know. The criteria being just one UK and one US film per season as we should try to include other countries too, films generally not seen regularly on television unless they have been remastered / restored, major international releases plus, of course, the fact that we can obtain a screening licence. We will continue to show films from Cannes, Berlin, Venice, Sundance and other film festivals, including documentaries and thought-provoking dramas.

With no further Business, the meeting closed at 6.08pm.
